A MONEY STANDARD.

Stewart, of Nevada, Makes a Strong Appeal in Behalf of Silver.

WASHINGTON, January 2d. — Senator Stewart delivered an elaborate speech in advocacy of silver as money in the Senate to-day. He gave a resume of money from the earliest period. He declared that if Europe and America adhere to the gold standard two-thirds of the people of the earth will refuse to recognize it. The great drawback to paper money is that it has no exact value among the different nations, and the same holds true, to a great extent, as regards gold. The scarcity of that metal makes the necessity for a silver standard more apparent. He gave a graphic description of the wonderful results achieved through the use of silver as money. He denied that the prosperity of the country after 1846 was due to the reduction of the tariff, as has been claimed by the free-traders, but was due to the fact that Europe needed our grain and sent her gold into this country to pay for it when this country had but little gold in circulation, and to the discoveries of gold in California and Australia, which made coin plentiful. During the use of the two standards of gold and silver prices rose 33 per cent., but after the demonetization of silver in Europe there was an alarming decrease in the price. With standard rates gold and silver will be practically of one value.

The immediate result of a reduction of duty would be increased importations and a great amount of money sent out of the country to pay for them. He denied the possibility that the country could be overloaded with silver, as it would always be largely consumed in the arts and manufactures He said the United States should be independent of Europe financially, as well as politically, if the welfare of the people is to be considered.

About 6,000 Republicans in New York City, opposed to high license and in favor of free whisky, voted for the re-election of Gov. Hill, who also received the solid free whisky Democratic vote. The official returns are:

Hill, for Governor.....168,454
Warner Miller, for Governor ...99,352

Cleveland's vote was 162,626, or 5,828 less than Gov. Hill's. Harrison's vote was 105,452, or 6,100 more than Miller's. The 6,000 anti-high license Republicans voted for Harrison. The Prohibitionists drew off from Miller some 2,000 votes in New York City, and helped Free-Whisky Hill to that extent. The 30,000 ex-Republican "drys" of that State boast that they elected Free-Whisky Hill.

When Texas entered the Union in 1845 she retained the ownership of the public lands in the annexed territory, of which she then had over a hundred million acres. This great domain has now all passed out of her control, with the exception of seven million acres, which are leased. About 60,000,000 acres, however, were given to the school fund, and much of this grant still remains in the hands of the counties which were made the beneficiaries. Out of the proceeds of its lands the State has built its new Capitol and made various improvements.

Senator Stanford's desk was adorned, the day Congress reconvened, with a magnificent basket of flowers, which, bearing no card, he at first inclined to believe was from some unknown admirer. Later in the day he learned it was the gift of Mrs. Stanford.

The President has withdrawn the nomination of Leon O. Bailey to be District Attorney for Indiana, and substituted the name of Solomon Claypool, now Assistant District Attorney under special appointment.

The Colorado Republicans have selected Ed. Wolcott for U. S. Senator. The present Senator, Tom Brown, had 15, Tabor 1, Wolcott 45. So the Denver "plunger" plunges into Washington.

Congressman Hogg, of West Virginia, has mysteriously disappeared. He was snowed under at the late election, and, despite his name, knows when he has enough.

Blaine, Secretary of State, Allison, Secretary of the Treasury, Alger, Secretary of War. There is nothing dusty about them.

Senator Manderson is the unanimous choice of the Republicans of Nebraska for re-election to the U. S. Senate.

The Cabinet makers are still at work, but Mr. Harrison is putting on the finishing touches.

Senator Hiscock, of New York, did not seem to enjoy his visit with General Harrison.

RANDALL'S POVERTY.

Philadelphians Raising a Fund for Congressman Randall's Wife.

WASHINGTON, January 2.—Some rich Philadelphians have quietly contributed to a fund for Mrs. Samuel J. Randall. The sum of $50,000 has been collected from among the admirers of Randall for his wife. It is well known that Sam Randall is a poor man. He has saved probably $15,000 out of his salary as a Congressman during the quarter of a century during which he has been in the House. He owns a modest brick dwelling in an unaristocratic part of this city, and that is about all he is worth. His illness last Summer and his feeble health now brought to the minds of his friends the bad financial condition he would leave his widow in if he should die, and they at once set about to provide for her. Republicans as well as Democrats entered with gladness and liberality into the proposition.

Open the Door and Let Her In.

ELLENSBURG, W. T., Jan. 3.—Seventy-five delegates attended the Statehood Convention which convened here this morning. Ex-Governor Watson C. Squire was chosen President. A long petition was read, praying Congress speedily to admit Washington with the Idaho Panhandle annexed. The petition sets forth that the people in the Territory are fully prepared and willing to shoulder the responsibility of Statehood, having a population of 240,000—a gain of 180,000 in eight years. Democrats and Republicans are alike anxious for the admission of the Territory under the name of Washington.

Accident to the Golden Gate Special.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2.—Word has reached here to-night that an accident has occurred to the Golden Gate Special near Echo Canyon, Utah, and that several persons were injured, none fatally, however. No futher particulars. The special was bound west.

Senator Voorhees is said to seriously contemplate retirement to public life at the end of his official term, March 3, 1891. Possibly the reported fact that a majority of the Democrats in the Indiana Legislature are opposed to his re-election has quickened his desire for private life.

Admiral D. D. Porter, in his annual report to the Navy Department, favors sailing vessels as practice ships, urges changes in the regulations by which more apprentices can be secured to the service, of which he points out an absolute need, discredits our torpedo service and favors heavy guns and war ships.

A constitutional amendment proposed by Springer of Illinois extends the Presidential term to six years, and make the President ineligible for reelection. It abolishes the electoral colleges and provides for a direct vote by the people.

Too Many Recommendations.

A Washington dispatch says:

Republicans in Washington, who have recently talked to General Harrison on the Cabinet question, say the Pacific Slope has overdone itself in presenting the names of men for preferment, and may get left entirely. When General Harrison indicated that he would like to have suggestions from people on the Pacific Coast as to whom they would prefer for a place in the Cabinet, they appear to have taken their political directory and selected almost every name within reach. They have urged the appointment of John H Boalt, ex-Governor Swift, Mr. Estee, and many others from California and Oregon. Among the number, the name of Senator John H. Mitchell, of Oregon, has been received with favor by General Harrison, but it is believed that owing to the fact that Senator Mitchell is in a position where he can do the Pacific Slope and the Administration much good, Boalt is in the fore front just at this time.

The Voice of John McCullough.

At a recent phonograph party at the home of his father-in-law, Lewis Miller, in Akron, O., Thomas A. Edison gave exhibitions from his original experimental phonograph. One of the little shells, or phonograms, he used was put in motion and gave through the funnel in distinctly audible tones one of John McCullough's speeches in Bloomingdale Asylum, in which he was confined up to the time of his death. By turns the poor man was going through the most intensely tragic lines from "Virginus," by turns protesting that he was not mad, and than breaking out into a most spasmodic maniacal laugh that sent a shiver thaough the listeners.

They Have Their War Paint On.

Boston Herald: The women are developing an extraordinary amount of enthusiasm from the contemplation of their victory of Tuesday. They are now proposing to attack Old King Alcohol. It is quite possible that we may soon see an anti-saloon movement similar to that which aroused the women of the West a few years ago. There's no telling where the women will stop, now that they have become aroused.

Troy Press: Mr. Blaine is the leading Republican in the country. His appointment as Secretary of State cannot fail to anger some Republicans. Refusal to appoint him would anger ten times as many.

NEW YORK IN THE CABINET.

Only Three Presidents Who Have Not Picked Out an Empire State Man.

New York Sun: Since the Government of the United States was established there have been only three Presidents who failed to invite to the Cabinet a citizen of New York.

They were John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, and Zachary Taylor, and two out of the three cases the Vice-President at the time was a New Yorker.

Since the brief Administration of Gen. Taylor, forty years ago, not a single President of the United States has neglected to call a citizen of the Empire State to a place among his constitutional advisers.

Under six Administrations New York has had the Secretary of State; under five Administrations, the Secretary of the Treasury; under six, the Secretary of War; under three, the Secretary of the Navy; under four, the Postmaster General; under three, the Attorney General. No New-Yorker has ever been Secretary of the Interior. Since the creation of that office it has been filled, with a single exception, by a man from the West or Southwest.

Looking back down the line of the successive Administrations, the record of New York in the Cabinet is this:

Cleveland — Daniel Manning and Charles S. Fairchild, Treasury; William C. Whitney, Navy.

Arthur—Charles J. Folger, Treasury.

Garfield—Thomas L. James, Post-Office.

Hayes—William M. Evarts, State.

Grant—Hamilton Fish, State; Edwards Pierrepont, Justice.

Johnson—William H. Seward, State; John M. Schofield, War.

Lincoln—William H. Seward, State.

Buchanan—John A. Dix, Treasury.

Pierce—William L. Marcy, State.

Fillmore—Nathan K. Hall, Postoffice.

Polk—William L. Marcy, War.

Tyler—John C. Spencer, War; Francis Granger, Postoffice.

Harrison—Francis Granger, Postoffice.

VanBuren—James K. Paulding, Navy; Benjamin F. Butler, War and Justice.

Jackson—Martin VanBuren, State; Benjamin F. Butler, Justice.

John Quincy Adams—Peter B. Porter, War.

Monroe—Smith Thompson, Navy.

Madison—John Armstrong, War.

Washington — Alexander Hamilton, Treasury.

Prominently as New York has figured for the last 100 years in the list of officers charged with the management of the executive departments, her share in the responsibility of government has not been out of proportion to the State's population, wealth, and surpassing political importance among the members of the Union.

We suppose that Gen. Harrison fully recognizes the force of this unwritten law of American politics. If he did not recognize it before Mr. Morton's visit to Indianapolis he probably does now.

CABINET CHATTER.

Toledo Blade: Bayard has been a failure as Secretary of State, but his successor will not be—especially if his name be James G. Blaine.

New York Sun: There will have to be a great decline in the relative importance of the Empire State before any President can afford or dare to ignore her when he makes his Cabinet.

Cleveland Leader: We have authentic and inside news regarding Gen. Harrison's Cabinet. It will be Republican of the all wool and yard wide kind, and we believe that this is all the Republican party wants.

Wheeling Intelligencer: Democrats are not pleased over the prospect that Mr. Blaine will be in Gen. Harrison's Cabinet. Fortunately for himself and Mr. Blaine Mr. Harrison is not consulting the Democratic press in the matter.

Denver Republican: No fitter man for Secretary of State than Mr. Blaine can be found, and it would be a proper recognition of his fitness and his merits if President Harrison should offer him that honorable and important position.

St. Joseph Herald: If after he has announced his official family Gen. Harrison does not give Kansas a place in it everybody will be surprised. Her favorite sons are not saying a word, but they are not to be decried as wood-sawers.

Louisville Commercial (Ind.): The Blaine cat may not be on the Cabinet housetop, but from the number of boomjacks and bricks that are being thrown in that direction by the mugwumps it is fair to presume that the feline is somewhere in the neighborhood.

New York Times (Mug.). Though Mr. Sherman is by no means an ideal adviser, especially for a President who may not be indisposed to a second term, he is, of course, a far safer, better, stronger man to have in the Cabinet, and especially in the State Department, than Mr. Blaine.

Washington Press: President Harrison will undoubtedly appoint the Hon. John S. Clarkson, of Iowa, Secretary of the Interior. A most excellent selection, and, as we understand, recommended by Senator Allison, who prefers his present position as United States Senator to the Secretaryship of the Treasury.

New York Press: So far as the Press is concerned it welcomes Mr. Blaine as a member of the next Cabinet, and feels satisfied that his administration of the State Department will do much to bring honor to the American flag and respect to the United States as a Nation.

Philadelphia Times (Dem.): If Mr. Blaine be not Secretary of State in the new Administration it will not be the fault of his friends and admirers. And it will not be the fault of the correspondents if newspaper readers do not know all about it as soon as Mr. Blaine or Mr. Harrison himself, if not a little sooner. Meanwhile Mr. Blaine appears nightly in his favorite character of Barkis.

Discovered Just in Time.

Atlanta Constitution (Dem.): No one man is absolutely indispensable to this great Republic. We can get along without Grover Cleveland or any other Democratic President.

A Royal Baby's Retinue.

Probably the magnificent state of the royal baby of Spain surpasses that of any other infant of Western lands, but the retinue of the Emperor of China shows how they do such things in the East. The list of his attendants is as follows:

Eighty nurses.
Twenty-five fan bearers.
Twenty-five palanquin bearers.
Ten umbrella bearers.
Thirty physicians and surgeons.
Seven cooks.
Twenty-three assistant cooks.
Fifty servants and messengers.
Fifty dressers (to put on and take off imperial clothes).
Seventy-five astrologers.
Sixteen governors.
Sixty priests.

With thirty cooks and thirty doctors it is perhaps a wonder that Kuang Hsu, Emperor of China, has lived to be 17 years old.—Youths Companion.

Remarkable Answer to a Prayer.

For four years Mrs. Benjamin Moyer, of Sonderton, Pa., was totally blind. Not long ago she was taken ill, so that she had to stay in bed several days. On the fourth day she awoke in the morning, and exclaimed: "My God in Heaven, I see!" Her husband rushed to the bedside and was instantly recognized. Then the other members of the family came in and were recognized. She pointed out different articles of furniture in the room, told different persons what they were wearing, and in many ways proved that she was. She asked that all her children and grandchildren, twenty-five in all, come to her bedside, and they did. She told them that she had earnestly prayed that she might see them all once before she died, and this was the answer to her prayer; Then she said: "This is the last day that I shall ever have the use of my eyesight." She awoke the next morning as blind as ever, and has been so ever since.

Getting the Worth of Their Influence.

Washington Post: Charles Francis Adams is of the opinion that railroads will combine in the future, and we shall have several systems of 20,000 miles or more each under one management. It will be a decided improvement over the present short line system, inasmuch as when a legislator gets a pass over a line he can take a good long trip and feel that he is not being stinted in his rewards.

Elementary Studies for the South.

Pittsburg Dispatch: If the South Carolina amendment contemplates anything beyond the "R's," it might, with profit and propriety, for the benefit of some of the Southern white politicians, include a study of those virtues which would prevent the intimidation and fraud that have hitherto been too much relied upon to circumvent the colored vote.

She Takes Two Seats.

Mr. Harrison—Who's that knocking?

Dakota—I, sir.

Mr. Harrison (busily)—Come in and take a seat.

Dakota (proudly)—But I am Dakota, sir.

Mr. Harrison—Oh, ah, indeed. Then take two seats.

And she will.

A Little Ahead of Time.

Terre Haute Express: Mr. Butterworth is a little previous in his annexation scheme. He sees things too immediately, as it were. That this will be a great North American Republic some day no one can doubt, but Mr. Butterworth is trying to rob his grandchildren of some of their occasion for a display of glory and fire-works.

Flocking all By Himself.

Philadelphia Press: Gen. John M. Palmer, of Illinois, who withdrew from the Grand Army of the Republic because the members of that body refused to support him as the Democratic candidate for Governor, appears to have gone off and formed a veterans' organization all by himself. At least nobody else has joined him.

Then He Would Be Out of Politics.

San Francisco Alta: Amongst all the curious election bets made by politicians we notice none by which the loser bound himself to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth in the next campaign. As an oddity, such a bet would beat climbing a greased pole.

Truly Rural Revenge.

Lincoln Journal: A Chicago syndicate has gone down and bought up most of the street railway line in St. Louis The St. Louis citizen gnashes his teeth at this insult, and determines that hereafter he will walk. In that way the syndicate's $3,000,000 will be made a bad investment.

Nothing in a Name.

Galveston News: It must have sent a thrill of pain through the heart of the ex President of the Southern Confederacy when he learned that Jeff Davis County, in this State, went Republican. After all, it really does seem that there is nothing in a name.

GOOD THINGS FOR THE BOYS.

Senator and Mrs. Stanford Entertain the Telegraph Messengers.

WASHINGTON, January 2d.—Residents in the vicinity of Senator Stanford's house on K street yesterday were somewhat surprised at the appearance of scores of boys who invaded the block about the hour of noon. Their uniforms showed them to be employes of the different telegraph companies. Their objective point, obviously, was the home of the California Senator. They were, as a rule, a neat, bright looking set of youngsters. They swarmed into the block from every direction, and their numbers continued to swell until one hundred or more had gathered. They were admitted into the house as fast as they arrived.

There they were received by Mrs. Stanford, upon whose invitation the boys had come. At 12 o'clock an excellent dinner of hot and cold viands was spread before them, and the messengers were bidden to make away with it. They needed no second invitation, but fell to with such zeal that in ten minutes the table looked as if it had been struck by a cyclone.

When their appetites had been thoroughly satisfied the boys were ushered into the drawing-room where each was given a box of candy and a bright silver dollar The boys showed their appreciation of Mrs. Stanford's generosity by giving utterances, at a given signal, to three cheers and a "tiger" which shook the house as if a cannon had been discharged within it.

The Constitutional Amendments.

The full text of the decision of the Supreme Court on the Constitutional amendments is published in the Enterprise. The opinion is by Justice Belknap, Chief Justice Leonard concurring, and Justice Hawley dissenting. The Court holds that the amendments were not submitted as provided by the Act of 1887, which requires that they shall be published in at least one newspaper of general circulation for ninety days prior to the election.

Justice Hawley, in his dissenting opinion, held that the amendments were submitted to the electors as provided by the Constitution itself, and that publishing them as required by the Act of 1887 was not essential. He held, however, that some of the amendments were not entered in the Journal of the Assembly of 1885 as required by the Constitution, and therefore concurred in that part of the opinion of the Court taxing the defendant with the costs.

The Talk of a Sensible Girl.

A critical young lady was recently heard expatiating vigorously against the silly way that women have of kissing each other every time they get together. She said: "If twenty women were to meet in the street every last one of them would have to kiss the other nineteen, and there would be—let me see—380 kisses worse than thrown away, for probably in ten minutes the whole party would separate into squads and go off talking about each other. When you see one of these violent, miscellaneous, kiss-everything-in-sight kind of women, it is safe to set her down as a fraud, which she generally is. If I had my way, kissing should be confined to family use and for medicinal purposes. Now, don't you put my name to this or I will kiss you right on Washington street the first chance I have."

"Afternoon Tea."

Said Mrs. G. to Mrs D.
(T'was o'er a cup of fine Bohea):
"Our pretty hostess yonder,
Has gained in looks surprisingly,
She seems as well as well can be!
What is the cause, I wonder."

Said Mrs. D. to Mrs G. [see
"She's changed indeed, but then, you
She put aside objection,
And tried that famous remedy,
Which did so much for you and me—
Pierce's Favorite Prescription."

For biliousness, sick headache, indigestion and constipation there is no remedy equal to Dr. Pierce's Little Pellets.

The Ice Crop.

The Truckee Republican says.

The weather for the past week has been cold and the ice men are happy in the anticipation of a bounteous harvest of the crystal substance. At Cuba there is said to be about nine inches of ice and on the other ponds there is from four to eight inches. The snow has been removed but most of the ice will have to be planed. There are about one hundred men employed by the various companies and this number will be increased to four hundred or more as soon as the harvest commences. If the cold weather continues the harvest will be in full blast next week.

Coal, Coal, Coal.

Pleasant Valley coal is the best and cheapest fuel in the market. 3 tons of P. V. coal equals five tons Rocky Mountain coal, by actual test. No slate or clinkers. One ton P. V. coal equals 3 cords common pine wood. Give it a trial and be convinced. Leave orders with or enquire of Wm. Hopkins, Depot Hotel or coal house, or at Nasbys.

N. Y. Music and Drama.—"Walls of the theater shaken with laughter."

CABINET CHATTER.

Baltimore American: If Mr. Blaine desires a position in the Cabinet or elsewhere he will receive it.

Denver Republican: James G. Blaine is the fittest man for Secretary of State, and fully 95 per cent. of the Republican party would like to see him get the place.

Wheeling Intelligencer: Your Uncle James G. Blaine is not asking anybody to indorse him or push him for anything. He goes right on sawing wood. Good deal of a man, that Blaine.

New York Times (Mug.): From a partisan point of view Mr. Blaine's claims to a seat in the Cabinet are much stronger than those of any other man, and if they are not recognized there is a good deal of worry and trouble ahead for Mr. Harrison.

Rockford Gazette: Clearly Mr. Blaine is entitled by all the usages of politics to the choice of positions under President Harrison, and the Indiana statesman will honor himself by inviting James G. Blaine to take the post of Secretary of State.

Washington Post: The opinion is quite freely expressed here and elsewhere that Mr. Wanamaker is not coveting the labors and responsibilities of any Cabinet office, but will be entirely satisfied with the honor of an appointment and the privilege of declining it.

Washington Press: One thing touching the composition of the Harrison Cabinet is quite clear. The mugwump free-traders, who opposed Gen. Harrison's election with all their might and all their malice, are opposed to Mr. Blaine's appointment. Does this signify anything? Read the answer in the votes of last November—as numerous as the stars.

Boston Advertiser: We do not believe that General Harrison will be influenced too much by the demonstrations of the common enemies of himself, Mr. Blaine and the Republican party, who are just now manifesting the greatest concern lest he may commit a political blunder by the appointment of Mr. Blaine to a place in his Cabinet.

Toledo Commercial: In looking over the whole ground we have been confirmed in the conclusion that neither New York, Ohio nor Indiana should have representatives in Mr Harrison's Cabinet. Ohio because people do not want Sherman to leave the Senate; Indiana because Harrison sufficiently represents that State; and New York because it has the Vice President, and any selection of a Cabinet officer would be sure to make a disturbance.

Cincinnati Commercial Gazette: Republicans in the city of New York do not seem to comprehend that General Harrison can form a Cabinet without taking two or three members of it from that State, and one at least from that city, and they always begin by claiming the Secretary of the Treasury. We think they will ascertain that Gen. Harrison is of the opinion that the Secretary of the Treasury should not be found in the city or State of New York. If we are not mistaken there are expressions of that sort in his record.

IRRIGATION.

The Carson Appeal says:

On every side is heard the voice of the people clamoring for some laws to promote irrigation. All right, gentlemen, this clamoring comes every two years, but still the irrigation laws are not passed. We cannot depend on the U. S. Government to do the work for many years yet, as the preliminary surveys take a long time. Two years ago a proposition was made to allow the State to borrow more money than it is allowed to under the present laws. The measure was voted down by the professional economists Allow the State to extend its credit to a million and a half more, if necessary, and then you can do something with irrigation.

A Genuine Grass Widow.

It was dusk one evening, and in the churchyard of a Northern village the parish sexton noticed a woman. She approached with stealthy step a grave in which a man had been buried, and the sexton, thinking her manner somewhat strange, followed her. When she arrived at the grave she took a handful of grass seeds from her reticule and sprinkled them upon the earth. "Ah, grass will grow there soon enough, mum" said the old sexton. "Yes, I dare say it will," replied the woman; but my dear husband when he died made me promise not to marry again until the grass grew upon his grave. To tell you the truth, I have just had a good offer, and as I don't mind how soon the grass grows I thought there would be no harm in sowing some seed." She was a grass widow in earnest.—Springfield Republican.

DON'T

Let that cold of yours run on. You think it is a light thing. But it may run into catarrh. Or into pneumonia. Or consumption.

Catarrh is disgusting. Pneumonia is dangerous. Consumption is death itself.

The breathing apparatus must be kept clear of all obstructions and offensive matter. Otherwise there is trouble ahead.

All the diseases of these parts, head, nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, can be delightfully and entirely cured by the use of Boschee's German Syrup. If you don't know this already, thousands and thousands of people can tell you. They have been cured by it, and "know how it is, themselves." Bottle only 75 cents. Ask any druggist.

A RARE CHANCE FOR INVESTMENT AND A HOME

THE MOST LOVELY PORTION OF RENO.

Facing the Truckee—The Aristocratic Riverside Avenue Driveway—Splendid Sewerage—Healthy Location and Safe From Fire.

The proprietor is now ready to receive proposals for lots in Powning's Addition. The map gives a good idea of the Tract, which is situated between the Central Pacific Railroad and the Truckee River, and commences on the west at a point three blocks distant from Virginia Street, making it the most central and convenient of any portion of the rapidly growing town of Reno. Unlike any other part of the town this Addition faces the beautiful Truckee River and Riverside Avenue is certain to become the fashionable driveway of the country. The streets are 80 feet wide, while Riverside and Keystone Avenues are intended to be 100 feet in width. All alleys are 20 feet wide. The soil is a rich gravelly loam, and susceptible of the highest state of cultivation. Being situated as it is it is more safe from fire than any other section The regular lots are 50x140 feet. The sewerage is perfect.

Before Buying Elsewhere Parties will do Well to Look at These Lots.

RENO

Reno's geographical position is excellent. It is on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, only 154 miles from Sacramento, and 244 miles from San Francisco It is the terminus of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad running south, and of the Nevada and California Railroad running north. It has two Flouring Mills, Planing Mills, three Nurseries, a Soap Factory, Reduction Works, and other industries. A great Woolen Mill and a Sash, Door, Blind and Box Factory, are about to be established.

Reno has the Bank of Nevada with $300,000 capital, and the First National Bank with $200,000 capital. It has two fine papers in the DAILY and WEEKLY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL and the Daily and Weekly Gazette.

Reno is the natural home of the Alfalfa, and therefore the great cattle headquarters of the State. Here are fed the prime beef for the California market. Reno potatoes are the best in the world, and she also excels in Strawberries and the small fruits. Reno Wheat took the first prize at the great New Orleans Exposition.

The State Fair is always held at Reno.

Situated in the very heart of the celebrated Truckee Meadows the future of Reno is assured. Reno is the City of Homes. There is not a house to rent in Reno. New buildings are occupied as fast as erected. Reno has advantages which no other town can equal. The climate is mild and genial in Winter, and even and healthful in Summer. There are no excessively heated or severely cold terms, and while the days may be warm in Summer the nights are deliciously cool; in Winter sleigh-riding is the exception and not the rule.

Facilities for irrigating surpass any in the State, and there is no failure of crops.

Reno has Churches of all denominations, Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls, Mt. St. Mary's Academy, the State University, and splendid Public Schools.

The Reno Water Co. furnishes ample pure, cold water for all purposes. The Reno Electric Light Co.'s electric light system, already well established, is being augmented. The Reno Gas Co. supplies gas for all purposes. The streets of Reno are lighted by electricity.
